

What Racism in the 1st Century Can Teach Us Today

Racism can be defined as a “belief that members of one race possess qualities and abilities superior to another.” But we must remember that racism came from man, not from God. After all, He did create us in His image and after His likeness, and then blessed us (Genesis 1:26, 28).

There is only one race – the human race. Acts 17:26 “And he made from one man every nation of mankind...”

1. Jesus breaks down all _____.

Colossians 3:9-11, Galatians 3:26-28, Matthew 28:18-20, Romans 16:25-26, Colossians 1:23, Titus 2:11, Acts 10:23-29, John 12:24, 2 Corinthians 5:17, Ephesians 2:11-22

2. We are all _____.

Colossians 3:11, Galatians 3:28, Job 31:13-15, Romans 3:9-12; 23-24

3. Therefore, we are all _____ in the body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:12-26

When this life is over, those of every nation who have been saved will worship our Father.

Revelation 7:9-10 “...a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes, and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes...”
