

“The Kingdom of Heaven is Like a Net”

Introduction:

- A. Matthew 13:47-50 is one of the many “kingdom of heaven” parables of Jesus.
- B. “The kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind.”

I. “The Bad”

- A. The _____ Fish — likes dark, muddy places.

- B. The _____ Fish — frequently back-paddling.

- C. The _____ Fish — routinely puffs itself up.

- D. The _____ — snakelike and hard to catch.

- E. The _____ _____ Fish — can’t coexist with others.

- F. The _____ Turtle — will snap at or bite anything that comes near.

- G. The _____ _____ Fish — an unusually long snout to poke at others.

- H. The _____ Fish — no backbone.

II. “The Good”

- A. The _____ Perch — lives in the sunny parts of the stream.

- B. The _____ Trout — known for its bright, distinctive streak.

- C. The _____ — relentless in its fight to get home.