

Lessons We Need To Learn From The Friends Of Job

Scripture Reading: 2 Corinthians 1:3-7

Introduction:

- A. God has not promised to shelter us from every difficulty of life, but He has provided the means whereby we can be equipped so that we might endure and even overcome.
- B. Paul as an example—2 Corinthians 12:7-10.
- C. The promise remains—through Jesus Christ, we can overwhelmingly conquer!
- D. Don't lose sight of the fact that one of God's greatest tools is YOU!
- E. With that in mind, a quick look at Job's friends can teach us some valuable lessons.

I. A Quick Overview Of Job's Story

II. Three Mistakes Often Made When Trying To Help Others

- A. Saying the _____.
- B. Saying the _____ in the _____.
- C. Doing _____.

IV. The Biblical Approach To Helping Others

- A. Comfort with _____.
- B. When correction is necessary, correct with _____.
- C. _____ your _____.
- D. Be a _____ to one another.