

Mothers Who Make a Difference

- A. Most all of us want to make a difference in this world, and there are a variety of ways to do so.
1. Fundamentally, in order to make a difference in this world you must be different from this world.
 2. We choose, day by day, to be affected by this world or to affect this world for the better.
- B. Mothers have the God-designed opportunity to make a truly profound difference in this world
- C. Consider what our Creator says about the difference mothers can make and how to do so.

Mothers who make a difference:

- ◆ _____ with Jesus as _____ daughters of God.
(2 Cor 6:18; Luke 8:1-3; 23:49; Acts 1:14; 1 Thes 4:1)

- ◆ Are _____ of God's will on the _____ of their children.
(Deut 6:4-7; Prov 3:1-4; 31:1-9)

- ◆ Recognize that even though this world is full of _____, _____ is the pathway to victory.
(1 John 5:1-5; 2 Tim 1:5; Rom 10:17; 2 Tim 3:14-17)

- ◆ Continue to be difference-_____ after their own children are _____.
(Titus 2:3-5; Judg 5:7; Mark 10:29-30)

- ◆ _____ lives that revolve around _____.
(Eph 2:8-9; Heb 13:9; Col 4:6; Eph 2:10; 1 Pet 4:10)