

Reasons for Ruptures in Christian Unity

Introduction:

The potential for ruptures in Christian unity is not a modern problem (1 Cor 1:1-13).

The Christian's _____ is just as important (if not more so) than his/her _____.

I. The Basis for Paul's Appeal: "Is Christ divided?" (1 Cor 1:13)

II. The God-Breathed Appeal: "That all of you agree" (1 Cor 1:10)

III. Reasons for Ruptures in Christian Unity

A. Following the wisdom of this _____ above and beyond the wisdom of _____.

B. Human _____.

C. Unguarded _____.

D. Misplaced _____.