"From Death to Life"

B. Paul is unashamedly standing before Governor Festus and King Agrippa and boldly testifying that Jesus was "the to rise from the dead" (Acts 26:23). C. What does that mean, and why does it matter, even this morning?
"From Death to Life" (John 5:17-29) • One day, Jesus is going to raise of the (5:28)
• Jesus will raise all of the dead by his mighty (5:28)
• Jesus has to raise the dead because he is the Son of (5:26)
Jesus has to execute judgment because he is the Son of (5:27)
• resurrection experience will correspond with the way lived life (5:27)
• If I want to be raised to life, I need to be raised to newness of life (5:25)