The Affections that Feed the Springs of Life

A. We spent last week exploring a very logical flow preserved by God for our good in the Scriptures:
1. My words come from my heart (Matt 12:34).
2. My heart comes to be "set" on certain things (Rom 8:5-8; Col 3:1-4).
3. My affections are the means by which that setting takes place (2 Cor 6:11-13).
B. All of which leads to four absolutely vital questions.

B. All of which leads to four absolutely vital 1. "What my affections
2. "Do they wi	ith God's will for my life?"
3. "Can they withstand the greate	test of life?"
4. "When my life on earth is done	ne, of what will they be?"
C. If I'm determined to be of Christ, every data to be of
2. "What my affect	ctions for Jesus?"