

“Make Me!”

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 29:13-24

- A. How embarrassing and shameful for a parent to have a child who willfully and openly rebels!
- B. God has sought to guard against such an attitude in His children from the very beginning.
- C. His desire? That we would humbly ask Him to “make” us, to mold us according to His will.
- D. Consider some simple, yet eternally powerful pleas you can graft into your prayers this week.

I. “Make me to _____ and _____ in Your precepts.”

II. “Make me to understand how _____ I am.”

III. “Make me to be _____ and have wisdom concerning my _____.”

IV. “Make me a _____.”
